

Asian Medicinal Herb Production and Marketing Education Program

December 3rd, 4th, and 5th, 2008
Bernalillo County
4H Auditorium

1500 Menaul Blvd. NW, Albuquerque

A three-day intensive training program for organic growers

Asian medicinal herb specialty crops offer a unique opportunity for organic growers. National experts Jean Giblette, director of High Falls Gardens, Philmont NY,; Peggy Schafer, experienced organic grower of Asian herbs from Petaluma, CA, and Jackie Greenfield of Gaia Herbs will share their extensive knowledge on:

Asian medicinal herb history and overview
Seed germination and propagation
Processing and quality control

Species identification and selection
Production and harvesting
Marketing and contract

Registration is $75 for all three days, and includes lunches each day. To pre-register or for more information, contact Charles Martin at (505) 852-4241 or cmartin@nmsu.edu

Sponsored by NMSU and the Western Center for Risk Management Education, WSU Extension

If you are an individual with a disability who is in need of an auxiliary aid or service to participate, please contact Charles Martin by Dec. 1, 2008.

New Mexico State University is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer. All programs are available to everyone regardless of race, color, religion, sex, age, handicap, or national origin. NMSU and the U.S. Department of Agriculture cooperating.

